Message From The GCIOPA National President

Once again, I wish to thank Old Boys who have keyed into our laudable and innovative GCI Museum Project is a mobile repository accessible to all Old Boys.

The Museum Project is an ongoing concern meant to capture our individual and collective history. We have

• SI - Nurturing Music Stars From GCI To Fame

Stardom is exhilarating. Early exposure to it is even more so. In 1967, some of the greatest moments for new times that the school band, Sound Incorporation (SI) performed on stage.

Members of the band were considered the real superstars in school, and non-members in a manner of speaking which those budding musicians trod. Therefore, SI became an aspiration extra-curricular group that any school should be part of.

SI began as the 'Tornadoes' in 1965. The founding members included . . .
